

Raise your pencils & brushes to your King

Later this year, King Charles will be officially crowned in a Royal Coronation. In celebration of this monumental occasion, we're calling on all children and young adults in Colchester to submit their artwork dedicated to His Majesty.

The winning entries to be printed and installed around the city centre and on social media!

GET INVOLVED

For a chance to see your artwork in the city centre, we'll need you to dig out your best pens, special pencils or favourite paints, and get creative! From portraits of King Charles to drawings of all things Royal Coronation related, we want to see your finest creations.

HOW TO ENTER

If you'd like to enter, please complete your portrait inside the frame included in the pack and submit your drawing via one of the following methods...

Entry Box

Your school, or organisation, could choose to have an entry box. Our team will be in contact to arrange a collection of the entries.

OR

Scan and Send

If you have a scanner, please feel free to scan your artwork at the highest dpi you can and email it to hello@ourcolchester.co.uk

All submissions must be made by Monday 17th April 2023

Please ensure all submissions are in good condition, no creases and are not folded.
